Series Description

English Grammar 101 is an online instructional series for language arts classes, alternative education settings, home schooling, individual study, and ESL courses. The series provides step-by-step instruction directed toward student performance goals. The series includes six volumes that represent an equivalent of 100 hours of classroom instruction. It is recommended that students have reading skills at the sixth grade or higher.

English Grammar 101 incorporates 6-12 content standards found in most states and districts. As an example, the series addresses the new California State Board Adopted Standards in English Language Arts: Written and Oral English Language Conventions, Grades 9-10, Section 1.0 with subsections 1.1, 1.2, and the writing portions of 1.3 (Grades 11-12 are similar).

The series can be further described as follows:

- Instruction is system designed based on student performance goals
- Instruction is designed for self-paced, individualized, step-by-step learning
- Pretests and Posttests are provided for each volume with all work automatically graded
- Students receive immediate feedback of responses with scores
- Materials are formatted for easy access and use
- Students can login from school, home, or anywhere on the Internet
- Students learn concepts and experience the language at the same time
